Alexandra attributes her fabulous figure to a devotion to ballet.

'I was sent to ballet school by my mother, who had a passion for it. At first I hated it, but after a year or so, I found to my surprise that I liked it. I had been a bit of a tomboy before I started going, and assumed, like most people, that ballet was just for cissies. How wrong can you be? Believe me, it is very, very tough training.

'I don't go to classes now, but I still keep up the excercises in my spare time. Some of them are for strengthening my legs or whatever, but most of them are bending and stretching excercises to keep the body supple.

'Guys seem to appreciate these stretching exercises too. I can get into all sorts of strange positions which make me quite accessible for sex. A favourite is when I lay on my back and pull my legs straight up and back along my torso. This lifts my bum up off the bed to just the right height for someone to kneel before me and fuck me. They can play with my tits at the same time, and I can watch their expression as they come. Beautiful.' ♣

Angelique

The very name Angelique conjures up images of champagne cocktails, fast cars and expensive clothes, but our Angelique wants nothing of these.

'No, I'm a country girl at heart. Nothing pleases me more than to be fucked in the open air by some strapping farm-worker, then to bathe in a stream with him afterwards. Ecstasy!' ♣

Jamie treasures her blonde hair. It has won her many an unexpected fuck. Often she sits in a smart club or discotheque casting a watchful eye over the passing man, tuning in to the stud of her choice. She likes slim, elegant men with a wry grin and an interesting line in good fun.

"Men look on a reasonably attractive blonde as a prize score. They work hard to get between my legs and when they do they usually find it was worth the effort. I cream a lot and my blood temperature in heat will draw the seed from even the best disciplined partner." ♣

'I must be honest, I looked on this modelling session with some trepidation – I mean, it isn't every day a girl takes all her clothes off for the sole purpose of entertaining countless thousands of men. But as the session wore on, I admit I began to feel quite horny. Much as I tried, I couldn't stop myself becoming sopping wet. Afterwards, thinking about it, I gave my boyfriend what he called the best fuck he'd ever had. He wants me to do modelling on a permanent basis from now on if it affects me like that.' ♣
